

ARKANSAS COURT OF APPEALS
NOT DESIGNATED FOR PUBLICATION
JUDGE DAVID M. GLOVER

DIVISION I

CACR08-303

January 14, 2009

APPEAL FROM THE SEBASTIAN
COUNTY CIRCUIT COURT
[CR-2003-178]

LATOSHIA N. DOTSON

APPELLANT

V.

HONORABLE J. MICHAEL FITZHUGH, JUDGE

STATE OF ARKANSAS

APPELLEE

AFFIRMED; MOTION TO BE RELIEVED GRANTED

For her underlying conviction for forgery in the second degree (CR2003-178), appellant was given a suspended sentence and was ordered to pay restitution, fines, and costs. The State filed its petition to revoke, alleging that appellant had violated the terms and conditions of her suspended sentence by failing to pay the ordered restitution and by committing new crimes that involved the possession of controlled substances. Following a hearing on the petition, the trial court agreed that appellant had violated the terms and conditions of her suspended sentence, and sentenced her to ten years in the Arkansas Department of Correction. This appeal followed.

Pursuant to Anders v. California, 386 U.S. 738 (1967), and Rule 4-3(j) of the Rules of the Arkansas Supreme Court and Court of Appeals, appellant's counsel has filed a motion to withdraw, contending that this appeal is wholly without merit. The motion is accompanied by an abstract, brief, and addendum that purports to refer to everything in the record that might arguably support the appeal and a statement of reasons why none of the adverse rulings would be a meritorious ground for reversal.

The clerk of this court furnished appellant with a copy of her counsel's brief and notified her of her right to file a pro se statement of points within thirty days. Appellant filed no pro se points.

From our review of the record and the brief presented to us, we find that there has been compliance with Rule 4-3(j) and that the appeal is without merit. Accordingly, counsel's motion to withdraw is granted, and the order of revocation is affirmed.

Affirmed. Counsel's motion to be relieved is granted.

PITTMAN and GLADWIN, JJ., agree.
